

Parent Authorization Form

The destination country requires minors (individuals under 18) to present a Parental Authorization Form at the airport or when checking into hotels, confirming they have permission to travel with the group.

This form must be completed and notarized by a notary public no more than 30 days before departure. You must bring this form on the tour. Additional documentation may also be required. For further information, please visit travel.state.gov.

A parent or guardian must complete the form on the back and have it notarized no more than 30 days before departure. You must bring the Parental Authorization Form and copies of the signees' photo IDs with you on the tour.

Please note:

- If the minor's parents are married, both must sign the form. One form with both signatures or two separate forms, each with a parent signature can be submitted.
- If the minor's parents are divorced, either both parents or the parent with legal custody must sign the form.
